

Everyday People

Were everyday people with a living history and we are the shoppers of the Moreton Aldi got a ring round me bum paddling a Lilo out to sea cheering 'Acorn' the boxer fighting Muhammad Ali . know about a roman man dug up on Moreton shore he was waiting for the hovercraft which sadly runs no more wish it did

We had tea in Caravans then rowed all the way home Leasowe lighthouse isn't stilted its base is solid stone.
Dug cockles with granddad slippery in your hands sunburn and ice cream on Morton sands

Were everyday people with a living history
remembering a Youth worker on the clock at Morton Cross a pint at the Plough In its closure such a loss Cadburys broken biscuits tuppence bought a load dancing at the Apollo on your way down Pasture road.

Leasowe Castle's haunted but it doesn't scare me were everyday people from a strong community descended from Vikings with a turbulent past we went to war
on that detested phone mast and won
