

Alan Dunn

Biography

Dr. Alan Dunn (b. 1967, Glasgow) studied at Glasgow School of Art and The School of the Art Institute of Chicago. He was curator of The Bellgrove Station Billboard Project (Glasgow 1990-91), lead artist on the tenantspin project (FACT, Liverpool 2001-7) and completed his PhD in 2014 on sound art based on the 10xCD opus The sounds of ideas forming. Through these projects Dunn has developed and presented collaborative content with Bill Drummond, Douglas Gordon, Yoko Ono, Philip Jeck, Pauline Oliveros, Bikini Kill, Einstürzende Neubauten, Lydia Lunch and Brian Eno. He has developed projects with ICA, Tate Britain, Liverpool Art Prize, Channel 4, BBC Radio and the Anthony Burgess Foundation. He currently lives and works in Liverpool and is a Reader in Art & Design at Leeds Beckett University; he runs the cantaudio sound label and is co-founder of Alternator Studio & Project Space in Birkenhead.
